

Freight Services rocks the globe with premium logistics services tailor made to suit the needs of the art, music, and film industries. Wherever the production is going, Freight Services is there with the utmost attention to detail.

Your show cannot go on without instruments, sound equipment, cameras or lights.

Let us handle all aspects of your concerts, film productions and art displays, from ATA carnet to documentation, legalization, and insurance.

Art, Music & Entertainment

Arts & Entertainment Services:

- > Customized projects
- > Support for complex itineraries
- > Service to international destinations
- > Special attention to fragile & high value goods
- > Support for time critical schedules
- > Packing & crating services
- > Exhibition coordination
- > Insurance
- > ATA carnets

For many organizations today, concerts and art exhibitions are a critical component of their marketing strategy and crucial to the survival of their company. In most cases, this means working with tight deadlines. Freight Services has experience with music, film, and art transportation. Freight Services can deliver your materials on time and intact virtually anywhere in the world.

